UK Press Card Scheme

BAJ is a Gatekeeper and director of the UK Press Card Authority, empowered to issue UK Press Cards to BAJ members and associates who are full-time media professionals in an editorial work-flow process.

The UK Press Card is recognised by police forces throughout the United Kingdom and by all public bodies in the United Kingdom. (The card is separate from the BAJ Membership Card).

The Authority's definition of eligibility is that the card is available to people earning the majority of their income from journalism who "need to identify themselves in public."

The card is an electronically imaged plastic card. It bears the BAJ logo, the word PRESS in bold letters, the holders name, photograph, job title and card number. The card is valid for two years.

The cost of a UK Press Card is £65.00 (£17.50 to BAJ members). Details of payment will be sent when/if your card is approved.

- It is necessary to confirm your eligibility for the card. The cards give journalists recognition in sensitive situations, and it is obviously important that they should be issued only to the right people.
- Staffers must, therefore, provide a letter from an executive in their office on office headed notepaper certifying their eligibility for the UK Press Card.
- Freelancers must, therefore, provide a letter from an executive on the publication/radio/TV network/website for which they work regularly. The letter, on the organisation's headed notepaper, has to certify their eligibility for the UK Press Card.
- The letter is a requirement of the UK Press Card Authority. You do not have to say to an executive that you want the letter for BAJ. You can just say you need it to apply for the UK Press Card. If anyone has any difficulty obtaining a letter, please contact the BAJ office to discuss the problem.
- The second part of the form will be forwarded to Custom Card IBS, the Hampshire company which produces the cards. Your job description will be the same on both parts of the form. (The first part shows the categories).
- You will see that you need to choose your own Personal Identification Code. It must be six digits or letters. Use a date of birth, a name, part of a name, a code word, or anything.
- Please note that your personal information contained within this form will need to be collected and processed for administrative purposes and to allow your application for a UK PRESS CARD to be managed and processed. Your personal information will accordingly (in order to enable us to provide you with your UK PRESS CARD) be subject to collection, use, storing, processing and transfer to third parties to meet legal, statutory, legitimate interests and contractual obligations in line with BAJ Privacy Notice and in line with the UK Press Card Authority Privacy Notice attached to this form.

The UK Press Card Authority operates a 24-hour Verification Hot-line. Anyone querying a journalist's identity can call the phone number on the back of the card and ask for the PI Code listed against your card number. Be ready to give your PI Code for corroboration. Should you ever lose your card or have it stolen, let BAJ HQ know immediately and report it to your local Police office.
